KRESS WORKS 2021-2022

My work has had a romantic interest in early modernism for many years. It has always seemed that the 20th century raced through numerous artistic movements and configurations leaving us here in the 21 century with many fertile areas that can be gleaned further. The works in this exhibition are an attempt to explore those areas, bringing them up into the post-post- modernist era.

Many of these paintings do pay homage to cubism, using a semi-cubist style and formal compositional structure. On a personal level these small scale paintings often refer back to my earlier bas-relief painted constructions, cycling such images as rats, rocks, stuffed animal ears, potatoes, stone walls, and lumpy-bumpy biomorphic bulbous, phallic shapes, all giving the viewer a hint into the silly-humorous intension of these works. So, don't get too serious while looking at the works in this exhibition or you'll miss the point of these joyful playful paintings.
